FROM THE EDITOR

When we think of August, most of us think of the Ekka and the westerly winds! Many of you may know that our eighth month was named after Augustus Ceasar, the first Roman Emperor, but did you know that August was once the sixth month in the original Roman calendar? It wasn't until about 700BC that August became our eighth month when January and February were added.

As we celebrate our official last winter month of the year, The Redcliffe Guide once again has your entertainment sorted. Grab a cuppa and plan your activities for the month.

There is much to do for the whole family! For all your entertainment and events this month, look no further than inside the Redcliffe Guide.

We also have some great stories including celebrating the success of local mum, Kirsty Fields, who is a finalist in the National Mums in Business Award. Good luck this month Kirsty!

And don't forget to scan the QR code below to listen to this month's GuideCast.

Until next month, happy reading - and listening!

WHAT'S HOT AROUND TOWN

STORY NADIA CHAPMAN

August is a month filled with live entertainment, education, and healing—and there's no better way to kickstart the month than with a subsidised rider training course.

How to Keep Upright is a highly successful Smart Rider Roadcraft course run on Saturday, the 5th of August, in conjunction with the Queensland Police Service.

The course is currently open to riders of all experience levels, teaching riders how to brake effectively, master slow speed turns, choose the best riding gear, and improve their confidence while riding.

The course format consists of one classroom lesson, a skills session, and a mentored road ride under the guidance of instructors and QPS highway patrol officers.

Registration is essential at a subsidised fee of $50.

If healing is on the cards for you halfway through the year, the perfect event is coming to Margate.

A Crystal Sound Journey with Alexis Star is coming to the LoveLight Crystal Sound Healing Temple on Wednesday, the 23rd of August, to provide a unique and hypnotic sound journey.

Attendees can expect to relax and surrender while receiving light coding through sonic vibration. Attendees are encouraged to bring a yoga mat, pillows, blankets, an eye mask, water, and a crystal to meditate with.

This meditative journey will feature a powerful harmonic set of Alchemy Crystal Singing Bowls, a Theta Ocean Drum, Koshi Bells, and a 432hz Chime.

Bookings are essential, and tickets start at $22.

Partying comes naturally to Redcliffe locals, and there's no better way to kickstart a weekend than having a boogie at the Bramble Bay Bowls Club.

Whiskey on the Rox is coming to the BBBC on Saturday, the 26th of August, to perform some of the best hits of the 80s.

Locals are encouraged to dress in their best 80s attire and help them welcome their newest member Cameron to the stage.

With Camo, Tasty Lixx, and Satchel Light on bass guitar, Izzy Candy on the mic, and Jimmy on the drums, Whiskey on the Rox will perform a showstopping setlist of hard rock 80s tunes to have you groovin' all night long.

Whiskey on the Rox will perform from 7pm onwards.

GOSPEL CHOIR BRINGS HOPE TO REDCLIFFE

STORY ALYSSA MACKAY

The Soweto Gospel Choir has thrilled and inspired audiences worldwide and now they are set to raise the roof in Redcliffe.

The triple Grammy award-winning choir will celebrate the music of protest and freedom when they perform their latest show, Hope at the Redcliffe Entertainment Centre this month.

Choirmaster, Shimmy Jiyane said Hope was a special show for the Soweto Gospel Choir.

"These are the songs that we grew up on; that inspired us and that keep inspiring us," Shimmy said. "Hope showcases how the power of song and the power of performance can inspire and soundtrack real change."

The show opens with a performance of South African freedom songs, before moving on to Martin Luther King's 1950's America and renditions of the protest music of the Civil Rights Movement, including works by James Brown, Sam Cooke, Stevie Wonder and Aretha Franklin.

The Soweto Gospel Choir formed in 2002 and includes the best talent from churches in and around Soweto, South Africa.

A founding member of the choir, Shimmy began as a dancer and now performs as a lead tenor.

He said all the songs from the show were amazing and had a strong message of hope that resonated with people across the world. "The best thing is that we get to perform for different audiences all over the world, and we get to share our great music, culture and tradition," Shimmy said.

"It's always powerful to see that gospel music touches people everywhere and is a shared language for hope."

The Australian tour starts with shows in Western Australia before heading to Redcliffe for the first Queensland performance.

"We're going back to Queensland once more, and it feels great because the last time we were there it was amazing, but it's been too long between visits," Shimmy said.

"Australia is our second home and we feel great and blessed every time we tour there. People are so loving and friendly and they show their support for us big time. Their joy is something we can always feel as we look out at the crowd. It is our hope that the audience finds the show as reviving and uplifting as we do in performing it."

Ticket prices range between $49.90 and $84.90. To book go to www.redcliffeentertainmentcentre.com.au/Events/Soweto-Hope

FANTASY & FABLES: THE CONCERT FOR CHARITY

STORY NADIA CHAPMAN

Fundraising meets fantasy this month in a very special charity concert that supports man's best friend.

Redcliffe First Settlement Lodge has partnered with Northside Concert Orchestras to bring locals a Fantasy and Fables concert on Saturday, the 26th of August, to raise funds for Guide Dogs Queensland.

Organiser and member of the Redcliffe First Settlement Lodge, Graeme Lawrence, said the event is in its third year in support of Guide Dogs Queensland.

"This year's concert music theme is Fantasy and Fables. It will be a fun concert with the orchestra members dressing up as fantasy characters. Audience members can also dress up if they wish," Graeme said.

The money raised by the Northside Concert Orchestras, with support from Redcliffe First Settlement Lodge, Hand Heart Pocket, and the Charity of Freemasons QLD, will be doubled this year.

"Last year's funds have been utilised to purchase a specialised hydro bath for installation in the breeding centre at GDO for $5,000."

Not only can attendees expect a spectacular afternoon filled with great music, but also "information about Guide Dogs, a chance to buy Guide Dog merchandise, great raffle prizes, and a chance to pat a Guide Dog puppy! There is also a sausage sizzle," Graeme said.

Bookings are essential, tickets cost $20 pp.

PENINSULA MOTORFEST RETURNS

STORY NADIA CHAPMAN

The Peninsula offers some of the most wonderful events involving the community, with a big charity event returning this August.

Peninsula Motorfest is returning to Pelican Park for its fifth event on Saturday, the 26th of August, to showcase a wide range of cars—from hot rods to modern V8s.

Organiser, Aarash Almassi said he is excited about this year's show, as it has been postponed numerous times.

"We started in 2019, but due to Covid and 12 rain postponements, we have pushed with four shows now—each show getting bigger and bigger. Peninsula Motorfest is a family-friendly charity car show by the water, showcasing some of the best cars. I started Peninsula Motorfest as a way of giving back through local charity," Aarash said.

Peninsula Motorfest is a free event that showcases a variety of cars, including hot rods, classics, old-school muscle cars, modern V8s, and motorcycles.

But it's not only about the cars! There's also live music, trade and food stalls, and loads of kid's entertainment.

"All trade stalls are car related from 1950s hot rod clothing to car stalls selling aftermarket performance parts."

While the event is free, Aarash encourages participants to purchase raffle tickets to support the charity of choice.

"We ask the public to buy raffle tickets and go into the draw to win many of the prizes up for grabs to support R.O.P.E Inc."

R.O.P.E is a local charity and a disability support service that provides opportunities and choices for people living with an intellectual disability.

"We love supporting R.O.P.E Inc as they are a local charity, and we get to see where our money goes to help people reach their full potential," Aarash said.

When asked what Aarash's favourite part about hosting an event like this is, he said, "It would have to be putting on the event with my close-knit family and my very small group of mates who help out. Seeing the smile on people's faces as they enjoy what the car scene has to offer is also very rewarding."

MURDER MYSTERY NIGHT AT THE DOLPHINS

STORY NADIA CHAPMAN

If you're interested in a Knives Out-style murder mystery night with tantalising twists and turns, Redcliffe has got you covered.

Picture this: you are at an A-list after-party hosted by millionaire Vanity Affair, but while you are mingling with Hollywood's elite, a homicide will happen—but who will the culprit be?

Director of Wild Cherry Events, Carolyn Rothwell, said the event is an interactive and immersive experience for everyone involved.

Murder Mystery Events provide a chance for people to work together to investigate a fake murder and uncover key clues! Our murder mystery parties are interactive and immersive experiences, where all guests are assigned a character and role to play on the night. Guests have a chance to become real-life sleuths," Carolyn said.

Established in 2019, Wild Cherry Events focus on providing Redcliffe locals with memorable and affordable events, specialising in themed styling for both private and community ticketed events, such as this murder mystery night.

"Wild Cherry can coordinate all aspects of any event, including catering, decorations, floral arrangements, unique styling, invitations, balloons, and so much more. Our team is highly skilled in a wide range of event specialties and we always endeavour to go the extra mile."

And Wild Cherry Events made sure to go the extra mile with this year's murder mystery night. Carolyn said her team has spent hours working on characters, printing out materials, and preparing props for the night.

"Characters will be assigned to guests on the night of the event. Before this, each guest (or primary ticket holder) will receive some generic information about the night, what to expect, and costume ideas. Wild Cherry Events provide staff who will help to facilitate the evening and ensure it runs smoothly. Our staff interact with guests and play a character throughout the night too," Carolyn said.

The Redcliffe Leagues Club will be providing a two-course meal, including dessert and two drinks.

This is an 18+ event, and bookings are essential. Tickets cost $85 per person. You can find out more information by searching redcliffeleagues.com.au/

DOWN THE BAY ON A TRIM LITTLE CRAFT

Boarding the Emerald, Redcliffe jetty, 1906

STORY PATTIE TANCRED

“I had put in a dreadful day, and the thought of being simply stewed or baked alive in Brisbane made one think of getting away.”

So said a suffering city-dweller in The Queenslander in 1902. The answer to his dilemma? “Why not go down to Humpybong on the Emerald?” He was by no means alone in looking to Redcliffe for a bit of summertime recreation, and the proprietors of the Emerald, the Humpybong Steamship Company, were ready to assist in the fulfilment of this desire.

The Emerald was commissioned in 1900 and took her maiden voyage to the peninsula in August of that year. She, “gaily decked with bunting”, was seen off in Brisbane by a large crowd of interested spectators and greeted on arrival at Woody Point by “three rousing cheers”. The honoured guests for this first sailing were treated to luncheon and, on the run back to Brisbane, “afternoon tea and other refreshments”.

From then on, the Emerald was the vessel of choice for Brisbane holidaymakers heading to Redcliffe. There were scheduled weekly sailings (daily in holiday periods) and she was also available for charter. The destination (“that most charming of watering places”) and the comfort of the boat contributed to the vessel’s popularity. Equipped with a “handsomely upholstered” saloon, a ladies’ cabin and a “splendid bar”, the Emerald also boasted lavish catering. As a 1908 passenger reported, “an excellent breakfast is provided” with the menu offering “whitebait a la Francaise; grilled steak and onions; and cold pressed ox tongue”. It is perhaps as well that the “lavatories ... befitted a first-class vessel”

Like most businesspeople, the vessel’s owners were not above a bit of politicking. As reported by The Weekly, the Redcliffe Divisional Board held a special meeting aboard the Emerald in 1902, as the guests of Mr Hayes (both an owner of the ship and a member of the divisional board) to discuss urgent repairs to the Redcliffe jetty and other matters pertinent to “the convenience and safety of the public and the steamer itself”. An inspection of the jetty was followed by “an excellent luncheon” after which the board discussed and agreed to the necessary repairs. No doubt the cheque for £30, being the steamship company’s “annual due to the board” helped to offset the cost of repairs to the jetty.

The Emerald continued to convey Moreton Bay excursionists until 1911, when she was sold to a Western Australian company and started a new life ferrying holidaymakers between Perth and Rottnest Island.

in Clontarf, said her passion for helping the community started at a young age.

"I grew up in a house with my parents and three brothers and sisters, and it was the everyday norm to volunteer time in support of those around us and the community. Our whole family was involved with volunteering... and that fostered my strong community spirit," Kirsty said.

After a nasty redundancy-style job loss, Kirsty founded Social Ocean in 2017 and worked hard to create a highly respected boutique marketing agency.

Kirsty uses her previous 23 years of experience in events to recognise opportunities and unpack possibilities within her clients' businesses. "It's that mindset and interest in helping others to feel supported, entertained, and empowered that excites me and drives me to help clients with their events and marketing their business."

Not only is Kirsty the only finalist on the Peninsula, but she's Queensland's only finalist in the Events category.

"Knowing that the work I do running and hosting events, a lot of which are supported philanthropically or through Social Ocean's corporate social responsibility interests, is being acknowledged by my peers, really gives me a confidence boost," Kirsty said.

When asked what advice she would share with fellow mums who want to start a business, Kirsty says, "My number one tip is...to immerse yourself into your local business community. There are many online communities you can join, like the AusMumpreneurs, that I'm so excited to be part of. However, getting out and attending business networking events and events that allow you to foster relationships in person will make an unbelievable difference."

The winner of the AusMumpreneur Awards will be announced at a Gala dinner on the 24th of August in Sydney.

continue to be gobsmacked! The decisions being made by our banks, corporate and public decision makers puzzle me greatly. The four big banks are busy closing branches and ATMS at an alarming rate, banishing cheque books to the refuse bin and encouraging their customers to use electronic banking. They turn up their noses at customers who want to use cash and encourage retailers to do the same. All this, when electronic scamming is at epidemic proportions and which cost their customers over $3 billion last year.

WITH RICHARD LANCASTER

The Reserve Bank puts up interest rates to curb inflation and the big four follow with increased rates. And customers who have savings with them, don't see the benefits either.

Nowadays we seem to follow the United States in many of life's aspects. So why not copy the US banks and offer 30 year loans at fixed interest terms.

Oh yes and the banks in the United Kingdom are doing something about their customers losing their money to scammers. They are compensating them for their losses!

Surely it's time for the Federal government to step in and create some real competition by creating a peoples bank. The struggling Australia Post network presents a perfect vehicle. Hive off the postal services and create Bank Australia.

And one final word. Everyone is rejoicing with the dumping of the current Reserve Bank Phillip Lowe and the appointment of Michelle Bullock as the new Governor. Let's not forget that Ms Bullock was Phillip Lowe's deputy and was part of the decision to effect the dozen or so rate increases passed by the RBA board over the last year!

BRAD'S BUSINESS TIPS

Why multitasking is a lie

So, try this for yourself... Next time you go to brush your teeth, make sure you leave your socks on (no shoes just socks).

Put the toothpaste on, run your brush under the tap (if you do this), then start brushing.

Now keep brushing and, at the same time, reach down and take off one of your socks.

WITH BRAD FLYNN

What happened?

Were you able to keep doing both tasks without missing a beat, or were you like me and flip flopped between the 2 tasks, not doing either of them that well? (Or am I just a little bit special and just uncoordinated?)

So often I hear the multitasking mantra helps efficiency, (yes you too ladies), but that is not the truth.

Even the term multitasking, which comes from computer processors and was invented in the 1970's is misleading. The processors could only do one thing at a time, but they were able to switch between these tasks incredibly fast, giving the impression it was multitasking.

My suggestion to get more done with the time you have?

Do one thing at a time, do it well and don't start your next task until you have completed your current task and see how much you will get done in a day.

MOUSETRAP MURDER MYSTERY STRIKES AGAIN!

It's safe to say that murders are heinous crimes, however, for many mystery lovers, we can't help but get caught up in unraveling the riddles they possess.

This September, Mousetrap Theatre will bring to the stage She Dies in Moonlight written by playwright John Da Cruz. The murder mystery takes place in present day Burleigh Heads at a book launch where authoress, P L Horsfall, played by Karen Matthews, has invited family, friends and a few foes!

"I've loved murder mysteries ever since I was a kid," said John. "I grew up with such greats as Agatha Christie, Dorothy L Sayers, and Robert Bloch, all of whom inspire me to do what I do."

As a local playwright, Da Cruz has many talents; an actor, composer, singer and has been involved with Mousetrap Theatre for many years.

Da Cruz assures us that once the murder happens, it's up to the audience to help solve the mystery. "It's really like trying to solve a puzzle," said John, "and our MC, Ciaran Kowald, will motivate audience members so they can have a truly interactive experience."

In August, Mousetrap Theatre presents The Little Grimley plays; two hilarious British comedies by David Tristram. Murder in Little Grimley, directed by Lynda Meyer and Lockdown in Little Grimley, directed by Lillian McDougall. Both are sure to be a hit.

Mousetrap Theatre Co would also like to thank everyone who signed their petition thus far for their support, showing the Council how important they are to our local community. They ask the Council to continue their efforts to establish a suitable building for their new home.

If you would like to support this, please sign online at www.change.org or in person, at the Redcliffe Sunday Markets.

MEAT LOAF: THE CONCERT

STORY NADIA CHAPMAN

“The beat is yours forever,” and an iconic beat from the 70s is coming to Redcliffe this month.

Meat Loaf: The Concert is performing at the Redcliffe Entertainment Centre on Saturday, the 26th of August, to showcase two hours of show-stopping hits.

Lead singer Rick Szabo said this concert is the newest version of his role as Meat Loaf.

“I started the role in 1989 in a show called The Australian Meat Loaf Tribute Show. We toured all over Australia until the mid-’90s. Meat Loaf The Concert is a new version of the original show, and as an 8-piece band, we deliver all the Steinman-written Meat Loaf songs and others just as they were recorded,” Rick said.

And the new version of the show is going down a treat, as Rick just sold out a show at The Tivoli in Brisbane.

Rick said locals can expect “nothing but hit after hit from one of the most unique and original artists that Rock n Roll has seen.”

I also spoke to Louise Smith and Joh Switzer, two backing vocalists for the show, to get an insight into the world of Meat Loaf. Louise only joined the show last year, but Joh has been a backing vocalist since 1992.

“I’m now the keyboardist in the newest lineup. Working with these dedicated musicians, who have also been my friends for 30 years, has been an incredible journey,” Joh said.

“Redcliffe will be the lucky-number-seven performance for me, and I’m excited to be able to work at the Entertainment Centre once again,”

Louise said.

Even though Rick and Joh have been performing together for 30 years, it never gets old connecting with the audience—which Louise feels similarly about.

“Watching people’s faces light up and hearing them sing along with me. There truly is nothing more honourable as a performer experiencing this,” Rick said

Amongst the three of them, some of their favourite Meat Loaf songs to perform are Bat Out of Hell, Total Eclipse of the Heart, and 2 Out of 3.

Bookings are essential, and tickets cost $69 pp.

Gustav the Great

Being passionate about all things arty means I am constantly reading about art history and current art news. And, I'm not the only one! Recently one of my adult (Art So Lively Academy) students shared news about the record breaking art sale of a Gustav Klimt painting. It is entitled Lady with a Fan and sold for $A161 million, putting it as the most valuable painting ever sold in Europe! A Hong Kong collector successfully purchased it at a Sotheby's auction.

WITH GABRIELLE TURNBULL

It was Klimt's last painting and was still on his easel when he died aged 55 in 1918. The last time this painting was put up for auction was in 1994 and it fetched just over $A17million. In 30 years its value has increased nearly ten fold!

He was born into a family with artistic leanings. His father was a gold engraver and many of Gustav's paintings include gold leaf, imbuing the work with an ethereal quality. He began his professional career painting interior murals and ceilings in large public buildings and was awarded the Golden Order of Merit for his work, by the Austrian Emperor Franz Josef.

Austrian born Gustav Klimt was known as a symbolist painter. This means that he painted images that included certain motifs, shapes, colours and other elements that were symbols for deeper ideas. Klimt's paintings expressed underlying meanings not immediately evident. For example, the famous work, The Kiss, is said to represent the mystical union of spiritual and erotic love. The rectangular motif represents male and the circle female, two opposites and individuals merging as one with the eternal cosmos.

In his lifetime, Klimt created over 200 paintings but many were destroyed by the Nazi's during World War Two, because of the artworks' so-called "indecent" subject matter. The Lady with a Fan has been described as an erotic masterpiece painted by an artist at the height of his powers with strong Asian influences originating primarily from Japan.

In the 1890's Klimt met fashion designer Emilie Flöge and they fell in love. Emilie was to become his life companion. It has long been rumoured that his famous painting The Kiss is a portrait of Emilie and him together.

In 1918, Klimt fell ill with the so-called Spanish flu, which at the time killed nearly 5% of the world's population. Severe complications, including a stroke, developed causing his death in February 1918. An untimely ending for this brilliant artist.

STORY @WATCHITWOMBAT

She's a Barbie girl (who is having an existential crisis) in the Barbie world. Life isn't so fantastic. So she decides to head to the 'real world' with Ken because we've got everything sorted over here right?

The film highlights the paradox that is Barbie... and owns it. It would seem that they wrote a pros and cons list and tackled every item on it. Was Barbie an astronaut before women were allowed credit cards? Yes. Has she perpetuated unachievable body image stereotypes? Yes. Do they address both of these issues and everything in between - 100%.

Even Mattel, the makers of Barbie and this film, aren't safe, poking fun at their own lack of diversity hiring.

The experience feels very intimate, getting up close with Margot Robbie. From the literal extreme close ups to the emotion she manages to give when bringing a kids toy to life. Robbie commits to the role but never comes across as ditzy or dumb, growing more with every scene.

However Ryan Gosling doesn't shift out of cheeseball mode but clearly relishes the chance to ham it up as a Himbo.

The narration from Helen Mirren, although brief, is one of the highlights. Punctuating moments with her dry British wit.

The message of inequality is prevalent in every line of this film and although it's an extremely important message, it could have been done without bashing you over the head with it for 2 hours.

Mums and Dads will love the nostalgia and the occasional double entendre. Girls and boys will have fun while hopefully absorbing her (not so subtle) message.

A local vintage tea lounge is the place to watch a series of movie screenings on weekly intervals called Free Friday Flicks, showcasing icons like Steve McQueen, Marilyn Monroe and Elvis Presley.

Located in a heritage listed section of Redcliffe's Cominos Arcade, the display shop (which includes a lounge) is a perfect treasure trove for those wishing to soak up the atmosphere of a bygone period.

Local history book producer, picture framer and studio owner Duane Hart (co-owned with partner Casey Thompson) said that he is here to cater to locals who enjoy a good trip down memory lane.

"People enjoy stepping back in time to enjoy a good classic movie in a nostalgic setting," Mr Hart said.

He said that coffee, tea, popcorn and other snacks were offered as the perfect accompaniment to taking in a good film as the start to a great Friday night.

"Make the most of the restaurants in the arcade open until 9 pm Friday night, such as Papi's Mexican Kitchen, What's In The Pot, Yabbey Road and Pita Kebab and Grill."

According to Mr Hart, patrons had been getting in the mood in a big way since opening night, donning costumes to celebrate the theme in a fun way.

"We all dressed up in period costumes as we had Charlie Chaplin playing. Of course, dressing up is optional," he said.

Mr Hart said those who wish to book a seat for Free Friday Flicks must come into the shop to put their name down on the guest list, as "with only 10 seats available on a night, we recommend booking early".

Those who visit the lounge during regular opening hours can relax on comfortable chairs to sit and watch the History of Redcliffe movie or just chat with family or friends in a quiet space.

Along with a private collection of postcards, maps, sporting, military, automotive and musical memorabilia, the store also offers photo restoration, VHS/Super 8 film transfer to digital service and a custom-made picture framing service.

To check out future screenings and more information, visit the Free Friday Flicks blog post at www.redcliffebook.com.

SO, YOU WANT TO BE HAPPY.

At a first counselling session, I ask, what brings you here? Most people will say a sentence that includes the word 'happy or happier.' Happy is a subjective word because what makes me happy may not make you happy. In fact, it could leave you agitated.

So, what is 'happy'?

Happy, according to the Oxford Dictionary, is "feeling or showing pleasure or contentment." Happy is a word that seems to cover four other words – freedom, connection, achievement, and gratitude.

Wait, what about money? Interestingly, money does not come into it because freedom always beats money! Freedom to choose how you spend your time, the work you do and what you do with your money.

Connection – positive relationships with partners, family, and friends. Feeling the joy of sharing a laugh and our life events with others.

Achievement – being able to do or be a part of something that we feel is valuable. Such as reaching a goal or writing a book.

Gratitude, once our survival needs are met, we can become complacent. Gratitude is being aware of what we have and being content within that, in this present moment.

What makes me happy? The freedom to be able to stop for an entire day, have KISS on the stereo, connect with my favourite redhead and be drinking an ice-cold sarsaparilla. What about you, when did you last feel pleasure or contentment?

If you want to talk more about happiness, then do not hesitate to chat with me. Redcliffe Counselling 0487844603 or info@redcliffecounselling.au.

ZONTA PARADES "FLIGHT OF FASHIONS"

STORY PANAYIOTA

Fundraising is an opportunity many can share with the ultimate goal to empower change - one person's journey at a time.

Zonta Club of Redcliffe, affiliated with all Zonta Clubs Australia-wide and internationally, has raised funds to help women and young girls for many years.

"As a not-for-profit and through our efforts, we've supported groups around the world that help women in need," said Marie Stewart, Advocacy Chair and Publicity.

Marie has worked with Zonta for 16 years and has seen the positive change their endeavours have made.

"Our work sees organisations like Encircle Redcliffe provide women coming from DV with valuable resources," she said. "Monies also provide needed education to girls in third world countries."

This August, Flight of Fashions is set to be magnificent. Fashions on Parade is by Postie whose range and pieces coordinate perfectly to form timeless outfits and cohesive wardrobes. They carry gorgeous garments for all social occasions.

Events like Flights of Fashions are not only about raising money. They are about creating awareness and understanding for the broader community.

A WORD FROM OUR REPRESENTATIVES

As your State Member for Redcliffe, I am honoured to serve you and our vibrant community. Today, I want to share some more exciting news regarding the 2023-24 Queensland State Budget.

WITH YVETTE D'ATH MP

The recently released budget is a reflection of the Palaszczuk Government's commitment to improving the lives of Queenslanders. It focuses on investing in key areas such as health, education, infrastructure, and the environment. I encourage you all to take a moment to explore the details of the budget at <https://bit.ly/QBAAG2023>

Our government understands the importance of accessible and quality healthcare. That's why this budget allocates significant funding to support our hospitals, ensuring timely care and better health outcomes for all Queenslanders.

Education is a top priority for us, and we want to give our children the best start in life. The budget provides additional funding for schools, which will enable our educators to deliver an excellent education and equip our students with the skills they need for a successful future.

Infrastructure plays a crucial role in driving economic growth and creating local jobs. With this in mind, the budget includes investments in roads, public transport, and community facilities for our region, enhancing connectivity and fostering development.

Protecting our environment is a shared responsibility. The budget commits resources to initiatives that address climate change, preserve our natural wonders, and promote sustainability, ensuring a cleaner and greener Queensland for generations to come.

I am proud to be part of a government that listens to its communities and works tirelessly to deliver positive outcomes. We remain committed to putting people first and creating a brighter future for all Queenslanders. If you have any questions or would like more information about the budget or any other matter, please do not hesitate to reach out to my office.

Council is undertaking a Coastal Building Design Review - Redcliffe Peninsula and Deception Bay, which will look at the design features that make up our coastal buildings such as the proportions of buildings, building separation and setbacks, overshadowing, creating interesting frontages, and sub-tropical design features such as balconies, green roofs and green walls. We want to ensure new buildings are inspired by the character and identity of the Redcliffe Peninsula, which makes it a great place to live, while accommodating forecast population growth and future housing needs.

WITH CR KARL WINCHESTER

Through good design we can enhance the coastal character of these areas and build on the existing lifestyle of our communities.

The work being done now, and the views expressed by residents will help inform the forthcoming new planning scheme and the future of the Redcliffe Peninsula and region.

WITH LUKE HOWARTH MP

This year we once again have put our Petrie Biggest Survey out to the community, to get as much community feedback as possible, on the issues that most affect you. We're grateful for all those who've completed our survey and want to continue to hear from those who are yet to complete it.

The survey results show that some of the top issues for residents in our electorate include:

- Reduce cost of living pressures
- Better hospitals and health outcomes
- Strengthening the economy
- Keeping taxes low
- Investing in better education, skills, and training
- Keeping our borders strong and secure
- Building better and safer roads
- Boosting wages
- Helping small businesses get ahead

If you haven't yet completed our Petrie Biggest Survey, I want to hear from you. What matters to you matters to me and your responses will help me be the best I can be, for you.

You would have received a paper copy in the mail which can be completed and returned by reply paid post or you can complete the survey quickly and easily online by visiting: //lbr.al/47hi.

FISH OF THE MONTH

Winter Whiting Sillago maculata

STORY PETER HANSLER

This time of year Winter Whiting, sometimes known as Trumpeter or Diver Whiting, schools up in sandy and silty areas in Moreton Bay. Of the few species of Whiting that appear locally the Winter Whiting and Sand or Summer Whiting are the only two that the majority of Moreton Bay anglers will see.

While "Winteries" have no size limit and a possession limit of 50, Sand Whiting have a limit of 23cm and a bag limit of 30 so it is wise to know the difference.

Basically Sand Whiting have yellowish fins and Winteries have dark blotches or spots along their back and sides. It is always best though to have a book or an app to help identify fish species.

When you find these fish they are quite easy to catch. The best bait I think is beachworms, with yabbies being great too. Live bloodworms are incredible, but expensive and a lot of work to acquire yourself. A few people also use fresh squid strips dyed red. I have caught them on the incoming tide at Hayes Inlet and quite a few times just drifting in the boat on the sand flats. They also make a great live bait catching Flathead and Snapper.

However post Covid, her busy world took an unexpected and dramatic turn. Passionate about her Redcliffe heritage, she was horrified to learn last year of the Moreton Bay Regional Council's plan to demolish the iconic Suttons Beach Pavilion.

"The Pavilion has always been a special place for me and my family. Our family celebrated Father's Day there for years. We even had my grandad's 80th birthday there." She remembered.

Faced with the prospect of its demolition, Jodie resolved to save the building by circulating a petition.

"The response was unbelievable. People not only responded by signing the petition, but volunteered to help as well," she said.

She formed a chat group and a Facebook page, which attracted more and more supporters, now numbering thousands and was branded The Suttons Beach Pavilion Preservation Group.

JODIE STARR

Jodie Starr is a woman who believes in living life to the full. Born in Redcliffe, she attended Clontarf Beach State High School and has lived and worked in Redcliffe for most of her life. She is a qualified chef and also owns and operates J S Designs, a website and logo design business as well as co-owning Nurture Nectar, a natural skincare business.

The media picked up her story and television and radio interviews followed. This coupled with a rally at the Pavilion attended by several hundred supporters attracted the attention of the Council, who announced the demolition's postponement and they commissioned an independent study into the building's safety, which when released revealed that the building was unsafe and demolition would need to be done.

Whilst the group was disappointed at the outcome, they were buoyed by Council agreeing to rebuild the icon, in a style befitting its former 1930's art deco style. Jodie and her group of stalwarts are planning a community farewell wake on the eve of the Pavilion's demolition.

ROOF RESTORATIONS

Transform your tired old roof with a value boosting makeover

Full Roof Restorations
From only $3,000

- Repair and Change Out Broken Tiles
- High Pressure Clean
- Re-bed Ridge Capping (if required)
- Re-point Ridge Capping
- Sterilise Surface (if required)
- Apply Primer/Sealer
- Apply New Roof Membrane (2 coats)
- Apply Nano Clear Protect Coating (barrier coat to prevent fading)

All roofs age over time. After around 15 years, tile roofs deteriorate to the point where a restoration should be considered. At this age, colour starts to fade, ridge capping becomes brittle, lichen and mould can grow, and tiles become harder to clean. The appearance of your home suffers and your roof is more likely to develop leaks.

Richard Gabriel from Mr Highlights Roofing has over 20 years experience in the roofing trade. He uses only premium quality products for his restorations, and offers a full 12 years warranty on all workmanship and materials.

Richard is an owner/operator and doesn't employ salespeople, so costs are kept to a minimum which means savings for you!

New Medicare Rebates for Hearing Services

Here is some great news for hearing services. Medicare will now offer rebates for hearing tests upon referral from a medical practitioner (GP). Now you can enjoy our most comprehensive hearing assessment with the reduced fee. For example, our fee is $98 for the hearing assessment, the Medicare rebate is about $50, so the gap payment is $48. Further private health insurance rebate (such as Medibank, TUH, HCF, Bupa..) may be available, depending on the cover that you're on, please check with your private health insurance. Keep in mind that this is only for hearing assessments, not for earwax microsuction or hearing aids purchases. Those who need hearing aids, please check with your private health insurance for your cover. If you are an adult pensioner, usually the hearing assessment and hearing aids are covered by the government. Please feel free to call us on 3603 1370 for any questions.

HERE IS WHAT SOME OF OUR HAPPY CUSTOMERS HAVE TO SAY...

It has improved my life in general enormously

I'm very happy with Ronnie at Sandgate Hearing. I've never had aids before and now I do. It has improved my life in general enormously. It was given me much more clarity. Ronnie is very thorough right from the start, he puts in a lot of time and efforts. He certainly knows what he is doing and he explained everything to me. I'm very happy. His prices are very good.

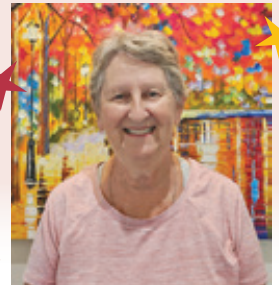

Graeme Collins, Redcliffe.

I feel that I can come back anytime

I'm so glad I found Ronnie, the audiologist at Sandgate Hearing in my local area. I wasn't at all happy with the other hearing company, but at Sandgate hearing I found them very professional with excellent personal service. Ronnie is very experienced and he explained everything to me. I ended up paying less than half of what I paid elsewhere for a much better quality product. The after care service, check up and follow up is second to none. I'd highly recommend Ronnie to anyone with hearing problems. If I have any issues, Ronnie is always open to fixing them. I feel that I can come back anytime.

Roy Conomos, Shorncliffe

I am really happy with my new hearing aids

I've had hearing aids before but the attention I received at Sandgate Hearing was far above the care of others. I am really happy with my new hearing aids. The kindness and patience shown by Ronnie, the audiologist as well as the detail and professionalism, makes me feel I can trust him. I'd recommend Ronnie to anyone who has hearing problems.

Julie Jeffrey, Taigum.
